BIOGRAPHY

Nemone is an HCPC Registered Occupational Therapist whose extensive experience, and skills make her a highly competent and valuable occupational therapist. Her specialisation in working with individuals with long-term neurological conditions, acquired brain injuries, mental health difficulties, and complex disabilities allows her to offer targeted and personalised support to her clients.

One of Nemone's strengths is her effective communication, which enables her to connect with her clients, team members, and stakeholders in a meaningful way. Her ability to navigate challenging situations while maintaining rapport and respecting people's beliefs and boundaries further contributes to her success as an occupational therapist.

Her background as a safeguarding lead and experience as a CQC Registered Manager demonstrate her commitment to protecting her clients and staff from harm and abuse. This emphasis on safety and well-being highlights her dedication to maintaining high standards of care and ensuring a safe environment for everyone involved.

Nemone's client-centred and proactive approach to goal-setting aligns with her previous experience as an Independent Care Act Advocate. This empowers her clients, ensuring their voices are heard, and promotes their independence while considering the best interests of those who may lack the capacity to make certain decisions.
