SALLY SAYS:

“It is a privilege working with children with complex needs, this allows me to make a positive impact on their lives and contribute to their overall well-being. Having the opportunity to develop strong bonds with these children and their families, the trust and connection I build can be incredibly meaningful. Helping them achieve milestones and witnessing their progress is immensely fulfilling.”

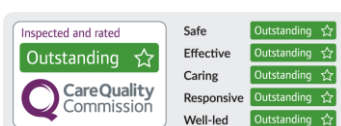

BIOGRAPHY

Sally is an HCPC Registered Occupational Therapist whose professional background showcases her extensive experience and expertise in working with individuals with disabilities, particularly brain injury, complex physical disabilities, cerebral palsy, and complex genetic conditions. Her understanding of the impact of disabilities on families and caregivers highlights her empathy and ability to provide holistic support.

One of Sally's key roles is to facilitate the transition of children and young adults from paediatric to adult services. This involves collaborating with various agencies to ensure a smooth and seamless transfer of care. Her knowledge and experience in this area allow her to assist children in accessing education and health care plans (EHCPs), which are essential for providing tailored support.

In her work, Sally collaborates closely with professionals from different disciplines. This multidisciplinary approach enables her to develop personalised rehabilitation goals and meaningful activities to enhance motivation and help clients achieve their aspirations.

During her tenure at Bristol City Council's Children and Young People Service, Sally specialised in assessing equipment and adaptations for disabled children in their home and school environments. This demonstrates her dedication to improving accessibility and enhancing the quality of life for children with disabilities. Furthermore, Sally's development of a specific service focused on sensory strategies to support challenging behaviours demonstrates her innovative and proactive approach to problem-solving.
