Experience

Paula's career commenced at Manchester City Council within the Special Educational Needs service where she spent 8 years supporting with people with learning disabilities. She then secured the role of licencing officer on the Manchester Safeguarding Children's Board.

While raising her family, Paula undertook a number of voluntary and part-time roles such as referral panel member, family support worker, palliative nursing assistant and children's residential worker.

In 2013 Paula joined JSP as a Case Manager for clients living within the Manchester area. Adept at multidisciplinary working and managing complex support packages, she ensures individuals have access to services to realise their rehabilitation goals and is passionate about the difference she makes to her clients and the families she works with.
