BIOGRAPHY

Supriya qualified as a physiotherapist in 2004 and completed a Master's in rehabilitation from Northumbria University in 2007. She is a proactive, resilient, calm, empathetic and confident problem solver and case manager who works closely with clients, family and the wider treating team in a holistic, collaborative and rehabilitation-focused manner.

Supriya is enthusiastic about case management and has experience in complex orthopaedic, neurological, cardiorespiratory, occupational health and sports injury cases.

Supriya spends time outside work by going on long walks, spending time with family and friends, doing yoga and meditation and learning new skills. She enjoys watching movies/web series, cooking multicuisine dishes, and playing board games.

Supriya began her career as a junior physiotherapist in 2004, doing rotational postings in all the disciplines and then progressing to senior physiotherapist. She has worked as a senior leader as the G7 clinical lead for civil service, managing doctors, physiotherapists, OTs and nurses. She has also worked as a clinical coach, providing supervision and coaching to health professionals from different disciplines such as physiotherapists, OTs, nurses and paramedics; as a national clinical auditor for DWP, England; and as an internal clinical auditor, disability assessor and case manager.

Supriya has been a case manager for single and joint instruction for both pre- and post-settlement cases. She enjoys sharing her knowledge and experience within the team. She is an effective and efficient decision-maker and takes pride in delivering goal-orientated rehabilitation.
